

SIBYLLE KRAMER

BARS, CLUBS & LOUNGES

BRAUN

The bar is located on the ground floor of the Hilton Hotel in Frankfurt. It is a cross between a classical hotel and a scene bar, where international hotel guests rub shoulders with the Frankfurters. At night, the bar turns into a club. Due to the selection of dark colors and the mood of the light the bar has a secretive and intimate atmosphere. The name of Gekkos is inspired by the main character in the film Wallstreet. The room is divided in three zones: the 10-meter-long bar area with DJ console, the raised seating area and the two VIP niches. The bar counter reminds one of a gold credit card and is emphasized by four prominent candelabras. The two VIP niches are upholstered in dark blue satin and can be closed with a curtain like a cocoon.
